

DISL REPORT MAY 2025

April Showers brings May flowers...It's time to bloom! Welcome to May 2025!

As our literature suggests, It is ok to need "A Little Time for Myself". There is a full calendar of events that just might be the little time you or someone in your group needs.

Some of these events are in our local area and others are listed from afar, to remind those who are traveling to look for opportunities to continue the progress (not perfection) of recovery.

Bonus: You could meet some really nice new friends! Here are a few highlights to share with your groups, and please see the attached flyers.

May 16-17: The Area 9 Spring Assembly is a Virtual Assembly: Love and Service. I look forward to attending this Zoom event, and will report back at our next business meeting.
